

NELSON R. TERROBA
8415 Selway Drive • Austin, TX 78736
(512) 784-3399 • nterroba@austin.rr.com • www.hoops101camp.com

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN, COLLEGE OF COMMUNICATION 1995-2000
Bachelor of Journalism with Honors in Magazine Journalism (3.60 GPA)

- Teaching certificate from the UT-Austin College of Education
- Certified in History and Journalism; qualified to teach technology applications or BCIS.
- Golden Key National Honor Society

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

AUSTIN HIGH SCHOOL 2008-PRESENT
World History, Teen Leadership, Varsity Basketball Assistant

- In charge of video, scouting and 9th grade A team.
- Helped filming football games for varsity.

DRIPPING SPRINGS HIGH SCHOOL 2004-2008
Digital Graphics, Webmastering, Head Boys Basketball, 9th Basketball & Football

IN THE CLASSROOM

- Nominated by students to Who's Who Among American High School Teachers, 2007
- Named Most Influential Educator and honored by the Dripping Springs Educational Foundation, May 2008
- Established new curriculum for Digital Imaging and Webmastering based on teaching the Adobe Creative Suite (Photoshop, GoLive, Indesign, Illustrator, and Acorbat Professional)
- Re-imaged entire lab with new software and created an electronic community where students were able to share, receive and submit files electronically. Students created videos using Imovie and websites that showcased their works.
- Led student redesign of the Dripping Springs High School website (www.dripping-springs.txed.net/hs)

ON THE COURT

- Organized first-ever DSHS Maroon Out Pep Rally for basketball in 2007-08, in which maroon T-shirts were purchased for every student and staff member (more than 1500 shirts paid for by sponsors). Created The 6th Man Student Section.
- Implemented PIPS Little Dribblers program for Dripping Springs. Boys and girls in grades 2-6 performed at home games at half time.
- Spearheaded formation of Tiger Flight summer select program, giving kids opportunities for improvement during summer and spring.
- Repainted and redesigned locker room and Tiger Basketball website to improve environment for the players and community.
- Used QUIA online surveys to collect information and surveys from parents and players. Implemented anonymous online player surveys to get valuable feedback in classroom and in athletics.
- Won district championships in 9th grade basketball two years in a row, finishing 25-4 in 2004-05 and 30-2 in the 2005-06 season (.902 winning percentage).

DRIPPING SPRINGS MIDDLE SCHOOL 2002-2004
Journalism, Yearbook & Study Skills Teacher

- Oversaw the production of the first student-produced newspaper and first all-color digital yearbook in school history.
- Won two consecutive basketball district championships, with an overall record of 25-7 over two years (.781 winning percentage)
- Established and organized the DSMS Annual Invitational Tournament

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

HOOPS 101 BASKETBALL CAMP

2000-PRESENT

Founder and Camp Director

- Established and grew basketball camp which has served more than 1300 campers in past nine years.
- In charge of staffing, promotion, creation of camp curriculum and budgeting
- Created all brochures and promotional materials
- Developed and designed a comprehensive camp web site at www.hoops101camp.com

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN

1998-2002

Camp Director for Texas Longhorn Basketball Camps (2002)

- Hired entire staff and was in charge of day-to-day camp operations, including dormitory assignments
- Implemented new streamlined check-in and check-out procedures
- Created entire camp curriculum and coaches notebooks for overnight, day and team camps
- Organized first-ever Orange-White scrimmage, and new All-Star Games for the NCAA and Big 12 leagues
- Brought camp to the Frank Erwin Center for the first time in history

Special Assistant To The Head Coach (2001-2002)

- Conducted and created individual summer basketball workouts for Division-I college athletes
- Oversaw film exchange, edited video and prepared scouting reports for upcoming opponents
- Created all camp brochures and program-based literature including scouting reports, playbooks, and posters
- Assisted with on-campus, underclassman recruiting and official visits
- Spearheaded formation of the new O-Zone student section at home basketball games

Head Student Manager (1998-2001)

- 1999 Big 12 Champions
- Created custom designed mailouts instrumental in landing McDonald's All-Americans to UT-Austin
- Oversaw staff of nine student managers, arranging for practice coverage, travel and summer camp

OLYMPUS CUP GREECE SUMMER TEAM

SUMMER 2001

Assistant Coach

- Worked with Coach Rob Lanier, playing teams from Greece and Macedonia for 14 days
- Won the Olympus Cup Championship over seven other European teams

DRIPPING SPRINGS DISPATCH NEWSPAPER

1995-1996

Sports Editor

- In charge of writing, interviewing, collection of photos, page layout and camera-ready production of the entire sports section. Computer proficient with mastery of Quark XPress, Pagemaker, and Photoshop.

OTHER SUMMER BASKETBALL CAMP EXPERIENCE

• Texas Association of Basketball Coaches

• Don Meyer Lipscomb Basketball Camp

• Snow Valley Basketball School

• Don Meyer Coaches' Academy