

Hoops 101 returns to DS

YMCA partners with basketball camp June 29–July 2

Just in time for the start of summer, Hoops 101 Basketball Camp returns to Dripping Springs for its tenth installment June 29–July 2. Coach Nelson Terroba said he is excited to partner with the Springs Family YMCA to bring the program back to Dripping Springs.

The camp, which runs from 8:30 a.m.–4:30 p.m. Monday–Thursday, is open to incoming second- through ninth-grade boys and girls. Tuition is $175 for the week.

Nearly 300 campers attended last year's two sessions. Terroba outlined some changes and improvements for this summer. Incoming second- and third-graders are allowed for the first time, the camp Web site (www.hoops101camp.com) has been updated and new registration procedures have been developed. So far, 100 campers have registered for DS.

Spots still remain at all three locations where the camp is held: Lehman High School in Kyle (June 8–11), Austin High School (June 15– 18), and Dripping Springs.

Each camper receives a Hoops 101 T-shirt and basketball, a “drills for skills” notebook, written report card and motivational messages throughout the week. In addition, there are hustle bands and a chance at several awards throughout the week. The updated Web site features a photo gallery, a look at a typical camp day itinerary and an online registration option.

Walkup registrants are welcome Monday, June 29, during morning registration. Please call ahead to make sure spots still remain. If interested call Terroba at (512) 784-3399. You can also e-mail him at nterroba@austin.rr.com.

The camp has served more than 1,400 campers to date, after its founding by Terroba in 2000.
